Message from the Editor

Dear Friend,

We've been busy this summer meeting with members like you and learning how we can better serve you and your community. In this edition of the California Casualty Connection, we recount the excitement of attending the annual National Education Association Representative Assembly, the Summer Meeting our Field team held to promote the strong relationships we've built with your organizations, and how one of our Account Relations Managers got a special treat from first responders in her area. You will also find tips to make moving a little easier, and a reminder of the importance of renters insurance.

We appreciate all that you do, and for the opportunity to provide your auto and home insurance.
