Message from the Editor

Dear Friend,

The new year may be off to a rocky start as COVID-19 numbers fluctuate across many parts of the country, but here's to hoping that the upcoming months are as promising as predicted!

In this February issue of Connection, you will meet employees receiving special recognition for their CalCas and community efforts; get a quick budget refresher; learn the pitfalls of potholes; and see how providing warm coats to school-aged children brought partner groups together.

Thank you again for the opportunity to partner with you for your auto and home insurance.
