Message from the Editor

Dear Friend,

It's already June! Are you as excited about Summer as I am? It's time to get outside and start enjoying more time with friends and family.

In this issue of Connection, you will see the friendly faces of some of our amazing CalCas team members; learn what you need to do to handle the events of a natural disaster; get a few quick tips to protect you and the neighborhood kids playing in your yard; and read about NEA Member Benefits adding siblings to their definition of family members eligible to participate in the NEA Auto and Home Insurance program.

Thank you again for the opportunity to partner with you for your auto and home insurance.
